

The Amazon Adventurer Big Quiz Answer Sheet

1. In reference to conservation status what do the following mean?
EX – Extinct EW – Extinct in the wild CR – Critically Endangered
EN – Endangered VU – Vulnerable NT – Near Threatened LC – Least Concern
2. What colour is a Roul roul hen?
Green with brown wings
3. What is the top speed of an Iguana on land?
21mph
4. What part of their body does the Kinkajou use to help them climb?
Prehensile Tail or backwards feet
5. What extinct species are the Southern crowned pigeons related to?
Do do
6. The Galapagos tortoise is the world's largest species of tortoise, with the aldabra tortoise being the second largest species. What is the third largest species of tortoise?
Sulcata or African spurred
7. The name Ocelot comes from which ancient culture?
Aztec
8. How many toes does a two-toed sloth have?
Three
9. The Boa crushes its prey to death before eating it, they are therefore known as?
Constrictors
10. What are domestic chickens originated from?
Jungle fowl
11. What age can Tapirs live to?
27 – 28 years
12. What grows on a Sloths fur?
Algae
13. How many toes do Tapirs have on their front feet?
Four on each front foot
14. Roughly how many ants can a Tamandua eat in a week?
63,000

The two apostrophe errors were where possessive apostrophes had been missed out from:

Sloth's fur and macaw's bite

How can we prevent the destruction of the rainforest?

Visit this website to find out:

<https://rainforestfoundation.org/10-things-you-can-do-save-the-rainforest/>

15. How strong is a macaws bite?
500 – 700 pounds per square inch
16. What is the conservation status of Cotton-top tamarins?
Critically Endangered
17. What are African black-footed penguins also called Jackass penguins?
Because of the braying sounds they make
18. How fast does a Boa Constrictor move?
Around 1mph
19. What is the lifespan of a Kinkajou?
Around 40years
20. Is there a primate which is poisonous, if so which primate?
Yes, Slow Loris
21. What is the gestation period of the Ring-tailed Lemur?
Four and a half months
22. What is the lifespan of the Greater Flamingo?
Around 60 years