

Governor News

You're amazing!

The school governors are immensely proud to be part of our school community. This has been an interesting and different year for pupils, parents and carers and all the staff at Borough Green Primary School.

Here are a few of the things we noticed and celebrated around our School during 2020. Thank you all for your hard work and stay safe.

Merry Christmas!

Home school – of course!

Pupils, teachers and parents rose to the challenge and delivered and learned the curriculum. We know it wasn't easy but everyone did really well

Experience learning

Learning outside

Clean, safe school and grounds

Fabulous school dinners all year round

Risk assessments

Learning about WW1 with beautiful artwork in the windows

Staying open during the Easter and half term holidays
