

California Proofreading Task 3

Wildlife

Keep an eye out for black bears, mountain lions bighorn sheep wild pigs deer elk. And surch the skys for a site of bald eagles, California condors, and California quails, the state bird. Swiming of the coast are green see turtles, leatherback sea turtles, California sea lions, see otters, and blue wales.

About 6,500 tipes of plants thrive in california. You can sea Joshua trees, which grow only in the Mojave Desert; perfumed magnolia trees; thorny coral trees; purple-floured jacarandas; and lots of cactuses.

NATURAL RESOURCES

There's a good chance that peace of fruit your eating was growed in california. The state is the top U.S. producer of lemons apricots avocados, dates figs grapes kiwi nectarines peeches raspberrys strawberrys, and many others. And it's not just fruit—california leads the nation in production of almonds, pistachios, and walnuts. It even grows over 90 persent of the broccoli that's produced in the united states.

The state also produces timber, sement, natral gas, and petroleum.