

California Proofreading Task 4, Mark Scheme

FUN STUFF

—California's Death Valley is North America's hottest desert, with an average daily high, in the month of June, of 115.5°F. Tank up before you drive there. Gas stations can be 50 miles apart.

—The world's biggest tree by volume is General Sherman, a giant sequoia tree in Sequoia National Park. It's 102 feet around—that's bigger than a basketball court—and may be as many as 2,700 years old.

—More movies have been filmed in California, than any other state.

—Waves that reach over 50 feet high, attract surfers to the state. In 1955, Disneyland opened in Anaheim, California. Since then, about 750 million people have visited the park.