

ART Home Learning

Creating is good for you and it's fun. Art can help us relax, express our feelings and improve our focus on other tasks.

Here are some useful links to inspire you to go totally ARTY!

Useful links

BBC Bitesize - lots of activities and information about artists and designers

www.bbc.co.uk/bitesize/subjects/zn3rkqt

Art for Kids Hub - lots of fun video tutorials

www.youtube.com/user/ArtforKidsHub

Learn how to make paper aeroplanes

www.youtube.com/watch?time_continue=6&v=SpYS5WtvNvQ&feature=emb_logo

The Schoolrun - lots of links to art home schooling resources

<https://www.theschoolrun.com/best-art-home-schooling-resources>

Art Gallery Virtual Tours

Explore one of these galleries through their virtual tours. Which is your favourite piece of art? Maybe create your own version inspired by it or write a description of it.

Collections — Google Arts & Culture <https://artsandculture.google.com/partner>

This allows you to explore lots of different museums from around the world. Click on the little yellow person to drop into the museums. My personal favourites are the Lowry Museum in Salford, UK and the Musée D'Orsay in Paris, France.

Games, quizzes and more! www.tate.org.uk/kids

Have a go at making a Unicorn Puppet or take a quiz to find out which art animal you are! These are just two of the totally wild projects you will find on this fabulous website.