

Maths

Exploring addition by adding on

Zara Simpson and Lydia Cuddy-Gibbs

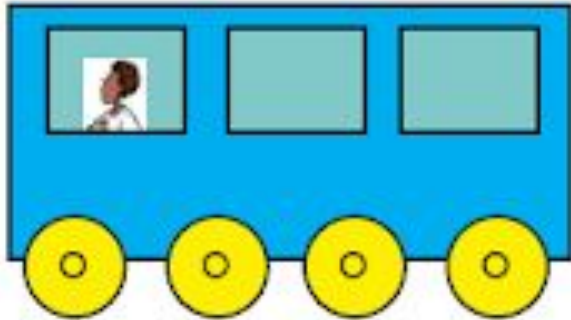

OAK
NATIONAL ACADEMY

How many passengers are in the carriages altogether?

Count the passengers in the carriage.

Hold that number in your head.

Point to and add on the passengers in the next carriage.

How many passengers are in the carriages altogether?

Count the passengers in the carriage.

Hold that number in your head.

Point to and add on the passengers in the next carriage.

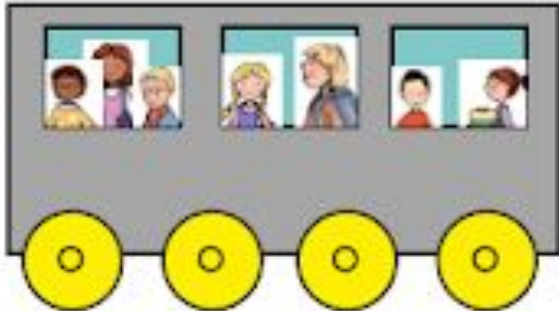

How many passengers are in the carriages altogether?

Count the passengers in the carriage.

Hold that number in your head.

Point to and add on the passengers in the next carriage.

