

Morning Christine,

Darcey would like her own clarinet for Christmas.

Darcey was practicing last night in front of all our family and I was so proud of her how she has progressed. And so glad she has joined the school orchestra. Think it was a big thing for her with her shyness but really proud she has joined. She told me all about it.

Thank you

Ginette