

Dear Headteacher,

As I was walking into the village yesterday I passed your school going to its Carol Service.

I stood aside and with very few exceptions each child either thanked me or bade me good morning.

It made my day.

Yours sincerely and with Seasons Greetings.

Barry